

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Susan Adelizzi-Schmidt, ext. 103, or

Michelle Salazar, ext. 116

Suasion Communications Group

609-653-0400

publicrelations@suasionmarketing.com

Media Advisory*Media AdvisoryMedia Advisory

Join the Celebration in Keansburg, NJ, Friday, June 5

New Jersey Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno Will Join Famed Restaurateur Leo Cervantes to Cut the Ribbon on La Playa while the Borough Unveils its New Branding and Logo

Keansburg, NJ – May 27, 2015 – Lieutenant Governor of New Jersey Kim Guadagno is scheduled to cut the ribbon on what promises to be a popular and celebrated destination restaurant in Keansburg, NJ during a June 5 ceremony. During the ribbon cutting the Borough will also unveil its newly developed branding and logo.

Who

New Jersey Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno, Borough of Keansburg and area public officials, Restaurateur Leo Cervantes and guests

What

Ribbon Cutting for La Playa and Borough Branding/Logo Unveiling Ceremony. If you are already a fan of the famed Chilangos Mexican Restaurant in Highlands, NJ then you know the way real Mexican food should taste. At La Playa, Leo Cervantes and his team will serve up a menu of not only authentic beach fare, but a land of opportunity to experience Mexican culture, music and fun.

A food truck and D.J. will be set up outside prior to the ceremony, providing food and entertainment for guests to enjoy.

When

Friday, June 5 at 12:30 p.m. (rain or shine)

Where

2 Beachway, Keansburg, NJ – directly across from the beach

For additional information about the Keansburg, NJ visit www.keansburgboro.org.

###